Purpose

The purpose of the "Catawba Team Basketball Camp" is to give high school teams and their coaches the opportunity to improve and prepare for the upcoming season. The teams will play at least ten games plus a tournament on Wednesday. Coaches will also have time to practice with their teams.

Facilities

Use the $5 million facilities of Abernethy Physical Education Center. It contains Goodman Gymnasium, which has three full-size basketball courts. Goodman Gym is the home of Catawba College's Indians. The center also features a full-size indoor pool and classrooms for meetings. 90% of all camp games are played on campus on full-size courts. All of our dorms are now air conditioned. Overflow housing is in a local hotel.

Camp Directors

The camp will be directed by coaches JIM BAKER and BILL HAGGERTY.

Baker, a 1978 graduate of Catawba, returned to Catawba in June, 1993, following fifteen years of assistant coaching experience on the collegiate level. He has directed camps at Belmont Abbey, Davidson, Virginia Tech, and VMI. Baker started and successfully conducted team camps at Davidson and Virginia Tech. Baker's record at Catawba is 286 & 156. Catawba won conference championships in '96, '98, '01, '05, '07 and tournament championships in '98, '99, '01, '04, '08, & '09. Catawba has played in seven of the last ten NCAA tournaments.

Coach Jim Baker

Haggerty, also a graduate of Catawba, first rebuilt the women's program at Catawba. He produced their first winning season in twelve years in 1985-1986 by going 17-15. He became coach Sam Moir's assistant in August 1987 and has continued in the same capacity since. Haggerty has helped to build Catawba's Individual and Team Camps into one of the finest summer camp programs in the region.

Coach Bill Haggerty

In the past 15 years, over 1,264 teams have taken part in the Catawba Team Camp.

★ "POSITION PLAY CAMP FOR POINTS, WINGS & POST" ★ June 17-19, 2010

Catawba coaches will conduct the area's only "Position Play Camp for Points, Wings & Post," June 17-19. The camp is designed for post players and guards who seek to learn how to play their positions to the best of their abilities. The camp is for the more advanced player and those wanting to prepare themselves for men's college play. For three days and two nights the players will undergo an intense and highly specialized training camp.

The camp will spend the majority of time in teaching and repetition.

Players will be divided into small groups for instruction with emphasis on the development of individual skills. The camp will be conducted similar to a college practice.

The cost of each camp is $195.00 (2 per room). This fee includes room and board, insurance, t-shirt, and instruction. A physical examination is required and a $25.00 non-refundable deposit. Also, the cost of the "Position Play Camp" is only $150.00 (4 per room) if you attend the "Team Camp".
